David: A Champion of God’s People

1 Samuel 17

II. Christ: The True Champion of God’s People

III. Followers After God’s Own Heart

Food for Thought

“When the Lord calls, the only right choice is to answer the charge. Like David, we should not fear when we are pressed into service; indeed, we should be the first to volunteer to face potential suffering for the sake of Christ. We can be sure that God will give us the final victory when we fight for Him according to His ways.”

TableTalk Magazine

Questions for Discussion

1. How was David an unusual champion of Israel?
2. What set David apart from all the rest of the people?
3. How is David a type (foreshadowing) of Jesus?
4. As disciples of Christ, following in the example of men like David, how are we called to serve the Lord?
5. What means do we have at our disposal to face our giants today?
6. What assurance, like David, do we have that we will be victorious?
