David and Jonathan

1 Samuel 18:1-5

- I. Jonathan’s Acceptance of David
 - A. He laid down his claim to the throne
 - B. His soul was knit to David’s
 - C. He prayed for the salvation of his household

II. Receiving Jesus as Jonathan received David

Food for Thought

In a true conversion sin is abhorred, the world renounced, pride crushed, self surrendered, faith exercised, Christ seen as precious, and the cross embraced as one’s only saving hope.
Steven Lawson

Questions for Discussion

1. What was the significance of Jonathan giving David his robes and his armor?
2. What does it mean that “the soul of Jonathan was knit to the soul of David?”
3. How did the covenant between Jonathan and David extend to Jonathan’s descendants?
4. How does Jonathan’s love and reception of David give us an example of a Christian’s love and reception of Jesus?
