“The Golden Chain”

Romans 8:28-30

I. The Links of the Chain

A. Foreknowledge

B. Predestination

1. Conformity and Likeness

C. Called

D. Justified

E. Glorified

II. Taking Up the Chain

Food for Thought

If our salvation has nothing to do with our own merit, or our own foreseen good works, but is purely of grace, then why does God save me? The only reason why God has saved me is for the sake of Jesus Christ. The ultimate reason for predestination is the honor and glory of Jesus. Jesus is the reason for the universe. The goal of creation is that Christ might have the pre-eminence.
R.C. Sproul

Questions for Discussion

1. How do verses 29-30 answer the questions of how and why God works all things for the good of those who love Him?
2. Why is foreknowledge the beginning of God’s work of redemption?
3. What is the destiny to which God has ordained those whom He loves?
4. Knowing that salvation is the secured work of God on your behalf, how should you respond?

Visitors, we welcome you with open arms.

Please join us in the fellowship hall after the service for fellowship and refreshments.

Thank you

We greatly appreciate all the love and support given to our family during the illness and passing of our wife, mom and grandma, Lois DeVries. We are so grateful for all the food, the visits, flowers, cards and generous gifts given in Lois's memory. We are so blessed and thankful to God for our family, our church family, friends and neighbors.
Lois DeVries family

We would like to thank all the friends and "family" at Lennox Ebenezer for all of the thoughts, prayers, and greetings sent to us during Arland's illness. A special thank you to the Sunday School children that took the time to draw and wish Arland a good recovery. It has definitely been a long journey. He still has a long road of recovery left, but with the support of all of you it has been made much easier!

Thank you, Arland & Ellen Abbas
