God’s Design for Children

Ephesians 6:1-4

I. The Disaster of Disobedience

II. God’s Instruction to Children

A. The Dignity of the Instruction

B. Obey your Parents

C. Honor your Father and Mother

III. As Unto the Lord

Food for Thought

We are to obey our parents and honor them and respect them because it is part of our obedience to our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Nature dictates it, Law has emphasized it, but as Christians we have this further reason, this great and mighty reason - He asks us to do it; it is His commandment; it is one of the ways in which we show our relationship to Him and our obedience to Him.

Martin Lloyd-Jones

Questions for Discussion

1. Why is a child’s disobedience seen as such a severe sin?

2. Who is being addressed when Paul writes that children are to obey their parents?

3. Who is being addressed when Paul quotes the commandment to honor your father and mother?

4. How can a child honor ungodly parents?

5. How does our obedience to our parents demonstrate our faith in Christ?
